

CHICAGO PICKS™ life + style in the Windy City

2 Pearly Whites & Glow Auras

Growing up in a small town left us feeling a bit um, underexposed later on in life. That was, of course, until we found catalogue shopping. Which led to online shopping. Which led to moving to a city that surrounds us with... ah.... choices.

We entered Mitchell Dental Spa (killer spot = Water Tower), and it was unlike any other dentist office we've ever seen. Non-threatening. Beautiful. Calming. Even the staff was good-looking and kind. A massage therapist is on hand for a complimentary massage to knead your neck and shoulders before your appointment, though you may be too busy watching your own flat-screen to realize you are, in fact, in a dentist's office. We were beyond spoiled by their sweet-as-pie Esthetician Danijela, as she worked her magic during our divine facial. We felt truly radiant for days afterward.

Need a summer pick-me-up? Escape from your summer skin with a Desert Rose Facial in August. It'll leave you glowy, rosehip and Vitamin C-induced, plus it's 50% off for the entire month! Your glow will show for all the world to see.
